Admissions (Holiday) Policy

Admission to the Dell is open to all children aged 4 to year 6 in line with our equal opportunities policy. Children do not have to attend Morgans School.

Children must be registered with the Dell and places pre-booked.

The number of places available for each scheme will depend on the premises and staff available. Keeping within our Registration limits.

Under our partnership with the Benefits Agency, five places for the summer holiday scheme and two places for other schemes will be held for their staff until fourteen days before the scheme begins.

Fourteen days priority booking period will be given to Morgans term time Dell users and committee members.

Places will be allocated when the booking form is received by the Administration Officer on a first come basis, subject to the above.
