Confidentiality Policy

The Management Committee recognise that there may be many issues that arise which are sensitive and should not be discussed in an open forum.

The Staff and Committee are expected to maintain confidentiality about all issues relating to individuals, families or staff who are employed at the Dell.

There will be times when staff are discussing particular issues within a staff meeting but, these are not to be discussed outside the meeting.

The Committee will also discuss matters relating to staff and these discussions will also be kept to the confines of the meeting.
